

Certificate of Participation

Confirming the participation of

West Ukrainian histology laboratory
(NordiQC ID:1491)

In the following runs of 2020

B29 - Breast Cancer Module

NordiQC is a professional and scientific organization promoting the quality of immunohistochemistry by arranging schemes for immunohistochemical proficiency testing and providing examples of recommended protocols, tissue controls and other relevant information including descriptions of epitopes and technical protocol parameters. The organization is independent of economical or political interests.